Quotes

"...a creative presence on the music scene today. [Jack's] truly unique baritone saxophone tone and phrasing, and distinct melodies that are rooted in the jazz tradition as well as modern cinema, make "And That Happened" a one of a kind performance." - Tom Tallitsch, JazzOn2 89.1 HD2

"Jack puts everything he has into each musical phrase...His dry wit, his love for 007, and his desire to please the band and the audience, gives rise to an impressive level of musical excitement." - J.L. Stockton, Lafayette College

"When I first heard the opening notes of "McNeely and Me", I knew the album was going to be one I would listen to repeatedly...Jack's writing [really stood out for me]..." - James Jarvie, JazzOn2 89.1 HD2

Biography

Recording Artist, Composer, Educator, Multi-Instrumentalist

Known for his skill and artistry as a baritone saxophonist, Jack Furlong is a messenger for jazz past and jazz still to come. Producing originals with a unique retro flavor, in addition to classic charts, he incorporates programmatic music that adds a twist. With music styling that is a hybrid of traditional jazz heavily influenced by legends such as Gerry Mulligan, Miles

Davis, Count Basie, and John Coltrane, Furlong is fast making his musical footprint as he personalizes his music for today's jazz scene. An accomplished performer, Furlong often plays three to five instruments during performances; leads the "Jack Furlong Quartet;" and has worked with and shared the stage with many notable greats such as Mulgrew Miller, Ken Brader, Jim McNeely, Dave Dempsey and Rich DeRosa. Jack

Furlong has recorded three CD's and performs throughout the upper East Coast.
